Thought for the Week

Jesus teaches his disciples the Golden Rule: "Do to others as you would have them do to you...Love your enemies and do good to them...expecting nothing back."

7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday, March 3: Net Retreat for all students in Middle

Grades and High School. Teens from other parishes will be joining us for the day. We are expecting 70 – 80 students all together. It will be a great opportunity to meet Catholic teens from other parishes.

The Net Team will be here for the 9:00 Mass and will lead the music.

They will lead the rest of the day in the school building, beginning with breakfast. Lunch is being provided by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Net Theme: Heroic 40, which will help prepare them for Lent.

Since the older students will be using the school building, the elementary students, parents, and all parishioners, are invited to the movie theater for movies to help prepare for Lent:

Beginning at 10:30 a.m. to about 12:00. The movies are Jesus: He Lived Among Us, and Lion of Judah. You can take snacks or purchase them at the theater.

Donna Barger will be going to Haiti again this year for the Mission of Hope. The group will be leaving in May to build a home, do a Bible study with women, do VBS with kids, provide water filter systems for up to 30 families, and deliver goats to families in the villages. The airfare is almost $1,000 and each member of the team pays $575 to cover the cost of food, transportation while there, and lodging.

We will have a second collection next weekend (March 2-3) if you would like to help her with the expenses.

Mardi Gras Party, Tuesday

March 5 The CYO are providing a pancake supper as their first fundraiser...a free will offering. Kids will have the opportunity to make masks. Everyone is invited to view the first session of "Into the Desert."
